

Women's Monthly Mikvah Prayer

May it be Your will, Yahweh our Elohim, that Your Divine Presence rest between my husband and myself. And may Your Holy Name be unified through us, and cause a spirit of purity and holiness to enter our hearts. Distance me from all bad thoughts and fantasies, and give my husband and myself a pure and clean soul. Let neither of us cast our eyes on any other person in the world, but let my eyes be on my husband, and let his eyes be on me. And let it seem to me that there is no man in the world who is better, more handsome, and more gracious than my husband...And so should I seem in his eyes, that there is no woman in the world who is more beautiful, gracious, and appropriate for him than I. And all of his thoughts should be directed toward me, and not toward anyone else. As it is said, "Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother and shall cleave unto his wife."

And may it be Your will, Yahweh our Elohim, that our union be beautiful, a proper union of love, unity, peace, and friendship; a union that has proper fear of Heaven and fear of sin; a union that will result in deserving children who are righteous, perfect, and upright. It should be a union full of blessing... a union through which will be fulfilled the verse, "Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine in your house, your children like planted olive trees around your table.

Our union should be one in which my husband is happier with me than with all of the good things that he has in the world. Our union should never be one of anger, quarreling, contention, or jealousy. Rather it should be one of love, unity, peace, friendship, humility, modesty, and patience. It should be a union of love, righteousness, doing of charitable deeds, and doing good to (Yahweh's) creatures; it should result in a healthy and good child, whose body will not be damaged, or lacking, who will have no affliction, plague, sickness, disease, pain, trouble, weakness, or failing, and who will not lack goodness for all the days of his life.

We should form a union that will allow holiness and purity to flow in thought, speech and action as befits proper Believers, in our souls our spirits, and our bodies. Our union should be according to the Scriptural laws of holiness, with success and blessing, the blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep below, blessings of the breasts and the womb. A union of holy and pure seed, good and beautiful, sweet and acceptable.

Therefore, for the sake of unifying the Holy One, blessed be He, with His Divine Presence. I am prepared and ready to immerse myself according to the Law of Moses and Israel. May it be Your will, Yahweh, that you purify us, and sanctify us with Your holiness, and cause to flow down to us from You a spirit of purity and holiness. And be pleased with us, and with our deeds and let us be worthy of doing your will forever, all the days of our lives. And bless us from Your blessing, because You are the Source of all blessing, forever. Amen

